Reflection Activity 1: Assessment

1. What EXISTING information would help you better understand the state of your program and inform planning for the future?

2. What does this information tell you about the state of your program?

3. What NEW information would help you better understand the state of your program and inform planning for the future?

4. Why is this information important for understanding the state of your program?

5. How might you obtain this new information?
Reflection Activity 2: Developing a Plan

Who Are You?

1. What is the purpose of your program?

2. What does your program value?

Where Do You Want to Go?

3. What is one goal you might have for your program?

How Will You Get There?

4. What is one action that might help you achieve this goal?

How Will You Know You Made It?

5. How would you know you have achieved this goal?
Reflection Activity 3: Implementation

1. How could you integrate reviewing progress against a strategic plan into your current program practices?

2. What challenges might you encounter when implementing a strategic plan?

3. What could help hold individuals accountable for implementing your strategic plan?